This century-old church, originally established as a Methodist place of worship, transitioned to a United Church before its closure in 1969. Rich in historic charm, this unique property presents an exciting reclamation project for the right visionary. Nestled on a 0.2-acre lot, the former church awaits a new lease on life. With its distinctive architectural features, the potential for transforming this space into a one-of-a-kind residence, community center, or business venture is immense. Bring your creativity and dedication to breathe new life into this remarkable building.
