4 season European log home built by Danish carpenters located on the shores of Pimisi Lake as part of the Mattawa River Provincial Park and Mattawa river system. Surrounded by acres of Crown Land forest. 880 ft of shoreline on 6.39 acres. Impressive mature forested white pines. Only a 1/2 hour drive to North Bay and 20 minutes to Mattawa and Antoine Mountain Ski Resort. Entire home has natural pine walls and ceilings throughout with beautiful fieldstone fireplace in the living room. Rustic hardwood floors and natural slate stone flooring. 1,000 sq. ft. log cabin , separate sleep cabin, garage, sheds. New road into camp. Eco toilet. Artesian well. Underground electricity to main cabin. Interesting history about the rather famous, original owner. <https://www.thecanadianencyclopedia.ca/en/article/louise-de-kiriline-lawrence>.
