128 OLD MUSKOKA Road, Perry,
Ontario, P0A1J0

Charming, well taken care of family home on a great private lot in a great location. Over 3 acres of land with towering pine trees and beautiful gardens and retaining walls. All of this is within a 15 minutes drive to the Town of Huntsville. This is a super welcoming rustic and comfortable home with a sprawling bright sunroom and a brand new floor. Spacious master bedroom with Jacuzzi tub and his and hers walk in closets. Convenient main floor laundry. Large family room on the lower level with a certified wood-burning fireplace. Tremendous potential in the rest of the basement as it is only partially finished but could easily host one or two more bedrooms or even a completely separate in-law suite. Numerous recent updates to this home. There is also an older 21X19'6 log cabin with hydro in good repair that would make an excellent guest cabin or many other applications with a carport/lean-to & storage on each side. This property has a lower circular driveway, leading to the lower level of the home and a single driveway to the upper level. (id:49587)
