Downsizing and looking for main floor living or needing more space for your growing family? This move in ready house is waiting for you to call it home. Light wood floors and large windows allow plenty of light to fill the home with a warm feeling. The lower level living space has so much potential to be explored by the new owner. It is perfect for entertaining friends and family for a games night. Too hot to cook or even need the space while preserving the summer harvest? The lower level summer kitchen is perfect to keep your upstairs clear of mess. For the cooler evenings enjoy the 3 sided gas fireplace to add a cozy feeling to the room. With upper and lower level laundry facilities the outdoors is never tracked thru your home. The lower level also boasts a large tiled entry space which is perfect if a four-legged family member comes in from the fenced yard and needs space to dry off. Fibre optics are available so working from home is even easier. Located in a desirable neighbourhood with easy access to shopping, highway, the Trans Canada Trail, beaches, and even a small playground for the little ones, this home may check all of your must have boxes.
