Ontario, P0H1J0

Situated within the serene wilderness of Northern Ontario, this 25-acre forested sanctuary provides an enchanting retreat, where the symphony of nature's sounds takes center stage. Adjacent to the Provincial Snowmobile Club trails, this property offers unparalleled access to a world of winter wonder. A lush forest canopy blankets the landscape, spanning 25 acres and creating a tranquil haven for both wildlife and nature enthusiasts. Towering pines and hardwoods rustle in the breeze, their leaves whispering secrets of the woods. During the summer, the chorus of chirping birds and the gentle murmur of a nearby creek serenade the senses. In winter, the hush of falling snowflakes and the occasional call of a distant owl paint a serene, snowy landscape. At the heart of this natural wonderland stands a small, enchanting off-grid Bunkie. This rustic haven offers a cozy respite amidst the harmony of the wilderness. Beyond the property's boundaries, the region is renowned for its exceptional hunting opportunities. The forest's vibrant life and the sounds of rustling leaves provide an immersive backdrop for hunting enthusiasts, offering the chance to track deer, moose, and small game amidst the harmonious melodies of the wild. For those seeking
